

Mid-nineteenth century map of North West London

WELLER, Edward.
 London (North West Sheet)

London: Cassell, Petter & Gilpin, c.1863. Outline colour. 470 x 650m.

£480

The north west sheet from the nine-sheet map originally published by Edward Weller in the Weekly Dispatch newspaper. This sheet covers Hampstead, Primrose Hill, Camden Town, Kentish Town and Kilburn with the railway lines marked in colour. Various places of interest are shown including the Victoria Rifles Drill Ground and the Zoological Gardens within the Regent's Park. Post office receiving houses, money order offices and postal district boundaries are marked.

Stock ID :18672