

A plan of Puducherry at the beginning of the 18th century

FER, Nicolas de.

Plan de Pondichery a la côte de Coromandel Occupé par la Compagnie Royale des Indes Indes Orientales.

Paris, 1705. 245 x 360mm.

£160

An early plan of the main French colony in India, founded when the French East India Company set up a trading centre there in 1674. Although it was captured several times by Dutch and the British, Pondicherry (or Puducherry) remained in French hands until 1954.
