

17Th Century Map Of The East Indies

£650

Additional Information

Dimensions	565 × 440 mm
Cartographer	SANSON, Nicolas.
Date	1658
Extra Info	Partie Meridionale de l'Inde en deux presqu'isles l'une deca et l'autre delà le Gange.
Publication	Paris, Mariette, 1658. Original colour. 440 x 565mm.
Condition	A good example.
References	-

Product Description

Engraved by Jan van Somer, the map shows Pakistan through to Indo-China, with the Malay Peninsula and most of Sumatra. Singapore is marked.

This is the first state of this map, which was first issued separately, before being added to Sanson's Atlas 'Les Cartes Générales de toutes parties du Monde', first issued 1658.