

A Detailed Victorian Map Of Burma

£425

Additional Information

Dimensions	555 × 840 mm
Cartographer	ARROWSMITH, John.
Date	1875
Extra Info	Map of Burmah, and Adjacent countries, compiled from various M.S. and other documents, by John Arrowsmith. 1858 with additions to September 1875.
Publication	London: Edward Stanford, 1875. Steel-engraved map, dissected and laid on linen, as issued, total 840 x 555mm, folded into original cloth covers.
Condition	A good example.
References	-

Product Description

A map of Burma originally published shortly after the end of the Second Anglo-Burmese War (1852-3), showing the country divided between Burma and 'British Burma' (Arakan and Pegu). A decade after this example was published Burma was totally absorbed into British India.