

FIRST PRINTING OF THIS 16TH CENTURY DUTCH MAP OF THE PROVINCE OF SEVILLE

£440

SKU: 12923 | Categories: Andalusia | Tags: Cadiz, Coroba, Orterlius, Seville, Spain

PRODUCT DESCRIPTION

An early map of Andalusia, extending from Las Sierras de Ronda to Cordoba and Sierra Morena to El Cerro and Aroche to Castromarin and Lepe, centered on Sevilla, with the Bay of Cadiz at the lower center.

Three decorative cartouches, also showing a naval battle and sea monsters

The map first appeared in the Additamentum of 1579; the text of this example matches that edition, but the original pagination '12a' has been erased and the pagination of the full Theatrum of that year, '15', written over the erasure in ink.

ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

Cartographer	ORTELIUS, Abraham.
Date	1579
Extra Info	Hispalensis Conventus Delineatio, Auctore Hierymo Chiaves.
Publication	Antwerp: Christoph Plantin, 1579, Latin edition. Coloured, with gold highlights. 350 x 460mm.
Condition	Page number added in old ink mss. on verso.
References	VAN DEN BROECKE: 28.2.

