

A Very Fine 18Th Century Sketch Of The Royal Naval Hospital. Mahon

£1,250

Additional Information

Dimensions	460 × 250 mm
Cartographer	Anonymous.
Date	1790
Extra Info	Vista del R.I hospital de Mahon, situado sobre la Ysla del Rey enmedio del Puerto.
Publication	Spanish, c.1790. Ink and watercolour sketch. Trapezoid, at most 250 x 460mm.
Condition	A good example.
References	-

Product Description

A skilled watercolour of the Royal Navy Hospital built by the British on the Illa del Rei in Mahon harbour in 1711, presented within a decorative frame-like border. The trapezoid format was used so that it would fit in a wooden panel on a yacht.

The hospital remained in use until 1964: it now houses the Hauser & Wirth Art Centre.