

A Scarce 17Th Century Plan Of Ciri? In Superb Colour

£450

Additional Information

Dimensions	530 × 460 mm
Cartographer	BLAEU, Johannes.
Date	1682
Extra Info	Ciriacum vulgo Ciri?.
Publication	Amsterdam: Heirs of Johannes Blaeu, 1682. Fine original colour with gold highlights. 460 x 530mm.
Condition	A little toning of paper in the margins.
References	KOEMANL BI 76.

Product Description

A prospect of Ciri?, near Turin in Piedmont. with magnificent cartouches for the arms of the Duke of Savoy on the left and Doria family on the right.

The map was published in the fourth volume of Johannes Blaeu's Townbooks of Italy, 'Pedemontium Florentissimum Italiae Latus', published after his death. Later editions were published by Moetjens, Mortier & Alberts.

The colour is particularly fine, with the armorials accentuated with gold