

Mid-Victorian Map Of London With Vignettes

£700

Additional Information

Dimensions	650 × 400 mm
Cartographer	Society for the Diffusion of Useful Knowledge.
Date	1836
Extra Info	London.
Publication	London: Baldwin & Cradock, 1836. Original colour. Dissected and laid on linen, total 400 x 650mm, folded into original covers.
Condition	A good example.
References	-

Product Description

A decorative folding map of London with vignettes of the Tower of London from London Bridge and London from Holloway, with lengths of bridges shown and with elevations of principal buildings along the bottom margin. Unusual to find this map sold separately in a booklet format as this example, it is normally found bound in the SDUK as part of the atlas volume.