

A View Of The Great Fire Of London, 1666

£980

Additional Information

Dimensions	350 × 220 mm
Cartographer	MERIAN, Matthaus.
Date	1690
Extra Info	Abbildung der Statt London, sambt dem erschrocklichen brandt daselsten, so 4. tagen lange gewehrt hatt A.? 1666 im 7bris.
Publication	Frankfurt: Heirs of Matthias Merian, c.1690. Coloured etching. 220 x 350mm.
Condition	A good example.
References	-

Product Description

A dramatic panoramic view of London in flames from south of the Thames, marked with a 20-point key. It is interesting that the Globe Theatre is shown safe in Southwark, despite having been closed by the Puritans in 1642 and pulled down about three years later, two decades before the Great Fire of London.