

A Georgian map of the British Isles

SEUTTER, Matthäus.

Tabula Novissima Accuratissima Regnorum Angliæ, Scotiæ Hiberniæ.

Augsburg, c.1725. Original colour. 585 x 500mm.

£900

An example of the first state of Seutter's British Isles, with a portrait of George I and the Hanoverian coat-of-arms in the title cartouche. In the scale cartouche bottom left, the old Stuart coat-of-arms is still present, also in the scale cartouche is a scene of Perseus on Pegasus rescuing Andromeda from Cetus, the seamonster. In the top left are the shields of England, Scotland and Ireland.

SHIRLEY: Seutter 1.

Stock ID :17398