

A true panorama of Stockholm

BILLMARK, C.J.

Panorama de Stockholm, Pris de la Coupole de L'Eglise de Skeppsholmen (Ile de l'Amirauté), Dessiné d'Après Nature et Lithographié par C.J.Billmark. (Nouvelle edition entierement refaite.)

Stockholm: J.C.Hedbom, c.1850. Printed boards, with 16pp. description of Stockholm by Felix Droinet, with a lithographed panorama on five sheets conjoined, total 280 x 2140mm.

£1,200

A true panorama of Stockholm (i.e. a full 360° view), taken from the dome of the Skeppsholmen Church, now the Eric Ericsonhallen concert hall. Carl Johan Billmark (1804-1870) was a Swedish painter and lithographer best known for his book of views along the Trollhätten canal (designed by the British engineer Thomas Telford), published 1843. On the back board is a plan of Stockholm.

Stock ID :10136