

Havana during the Seven Years' War

GENTLEMAN'S MAGAZINE.
 Plan of the City & Harbour of Havanna.

London, 1762. 125 x 195mm.

£220

Map and harbour chart, with soundings, of Havana, Cuba, with a seventeen point key to notable places. The plan was published towards the end of the Seven Years' War, when the British sent five warships and 4,000 men to attack Havana. In the Treaty of Paris the following year Britain swapped Cuba for Florida.

Stock ID :17218