

Late-Georgian map of London

PIGOT, James.

Pigot & Co's New Plan of London, Taken from the best Authorities with the Geographical bearings from the Dome of St Pauls And formed into Divisions by means of circular lines, each division being referred to in their list of Streets and Public Buildings in the Metropolis. The whole forming the most complete guide to London and Its Vicinity yet Published.

London & Manchester: J. Pigot & Co., c.1823. Coloured. Dissected and laid on linen, total 520 x 750mm.

£1,250

Detailed plan of London centered on St Paul's cathedral , extending to Islington, East India Dock, Camberwell & Kensington Gardens.

HOWGEGO: 298.

Stock ID :19489