

View of pre-Fire London

AA, Pieter van der.
Londres, Capitale de l'Angleterre.

Leiden, c.1720. Coloured. 220 x 270mm.

£650

A prospect of London before the Great Fire of 1666, taken from south of Southwark. Points of interest are the houses on London Bridge, and the pre-Fire St Pauls, which had already lost its steeple to lightning. With a decorative frame border embellished with swagged ribbons. From 'La galerie agréable du Monde. '

Stock ID :19964