

Early 19th century map of the American south east

CARY, John.

A New Map of Part of the United States of North America, Containing the Carolinas and Georgia, Also the Floridas and Part of the Bahama Islands &c. From the Latest Authorities.

London, 1819. Original body colour. 515 x 595mm.

£800

Detailed map of the states of the south USA, east of the Mississippi, with Tennessee, North & South Carolina, Georgia and East & West Florida. The map was published the year that Spain ceded West Florida to the USA in the Adams-Onís Treaty; although the USA did not take control until 1821 west Florida is already coloured as parts of Mississippi and Alabama. This example is on paper watermarked '1818 J Whatman Turkey Mill'. Whatman's paper was the best quality printing paper available at the time.

Stock ID :20747