

A scarce 17th century miniature map of the Netherlands

CLOPPENBURG, Johannes.
Hollandia.

Amsterdam, 1630, French text edition. First Edition. 190 x 260mm.

£225

A reduction of the Hondius map of Holland, engraved by Pieter Van den Keere for Cloppenburg's version of the Mercator 'Atlas Minor'. This was the least successful of three "pocket" editions of Gerard Mercator's atlas, and seems to have been suppressed after 1636 until 1670, making the maps scarce on the market.
