

Separate-issue town plan of 18th century Florence

RUGGIERI, Ferdinando.
 Pianta della città di Firenze.

Firenze: Molini, Landi & Co, 1808. Dissected and laid on linen, as issued, total 535 x 710mm, edged with green silk.

£850

Scarce town plan of Florence by the architect Ferdinando Ruggieri (1691-1741), his only foray into cartography, issued originally in 1731. The allegorical cartouche lower left features a man representing the River Arno and Marzocco, the lion of Florence.

Stock ID :20661