

17th century miniature map of the Philippines

MALLET, Alain Manesson.
Les Isles Philippines 1682.

Paris, 1682. Coloured. 150 x 105mm, set in text.

£450

A miniature map of the Philippines, decorated with a sea-battle and a title cartouche in the shape of a scallop shell supported by hippocamps and a merman. It was published in the 'Description de l'Univers', a five-volume work by Mallet (1630-1706), a military engineer, cartographer and mathematician in the service of the French King, Louis XIV.

Stock ID :22332