

An early 18th century map of Canada

CHATELAIN, Henri Abraham.

Carte du Canada ou de la Nouvelle France, & des Découvertes qui y ont Été Faites,...

Amsterdam, 1719. Coloured. 415 x 530mm.

£1,100

Châtelain's edition of Delisle's landmark map of Canada, first issued in 1703. It extends north from Illinois and Maryland, through New England and the Great Lakes, into Canada up to Baffin Bay and Greenland. Labrador is said to be home to the 'Eskimaux'. A box of descriptive text is located in the top left corner. From volume six of Châtelain's monumental 'Atlas Historique'.

Stock ID :22886