

An early 19th century map of Denmark in fine colour

LAURIE & WHITTLE.

Kingdom of Denmark with the Duchy of Holstein.

London: Robert Laurie & James Whittle, 1801. Fine original colour. 270 x 210mm.

£160

A map of Denmark, still including Schleswig-Holstein, from an uncommon smaller-format atlas by Laurie and Whittle. The map was engraved by Edward Jones (fl 1799-1818) and Benjamin Smith jnr (1775-1817). Smith was later executed for forging Margate Bank notes, despite claiming he had been forced to do so by French privateers who had captured him in 1810 and held him in prison for four years.

British Map Engravers p. 612-3.
