

A very fine 17th century wind rose

ZAHN, Johann.
Iconismus XXV.

Wurzburg: Quirinus Heyl, 1685-6. Coloured. 265 x 355mm.

£1,400

A decorative wind rose, set in a pedestal with four wind heads, with a background of columns and pyramids. The rose is orientated with north to the bottom, the names given in Latin. The plate was published in 'Oculus artificialis teledioptricus sive telescopium', a book about the construction and use of scientific instruments written by Johann Zahn (1641-1707)

Stock ID :23064