

A mid-19th century tourist's map of Paris

Anonymous.

Plan Pittoresque de la Ville de Paris. Gravé sur Acier par Bénard.

Paris: Fatout, 1842. Steel engraving, dissected and laid on linen, total 545 x 865mm.

£400

A detailed folding plan of Paris, with vignettes of the important buildings and extensive keys down the sides. This map is unattributed. The following year Fatout published a new, very similar map with the same title, also engraved by Bénard, drawn by Alexandre Vuillemin,

Stock ID :22987