

An illustration of the Venetian State Barge, the Bucentaur

MORTIER, Pierre.

Solemniere de Bucentaure, qui se celebre a Venise le Jour de l'Ascension Exactly Dessine sur le Lieu Mis au jour par le Soins de Pierre Mortier Libraire A Amsterdam Avec Privilege.

Amsterdam: Pierre Mortier, c.1704. Coloured. 470 x 570mm.

£1,100

An illustration of the Bucentaur, the Doge of Venice's massive barge, on Ascension Day, during the 'Marriage of the Sea', when the city celebrated its maritime dominance. The barge is the third of four major barges, built in 1606 and dismantled in 1719. This plate was engraved for Mortier's editions of Blaeu's Townbooks of Italy.

Stock ID :23201