

Du Val's folio map of the slave forts of the Gulf of Guinea

DU VAL, Pierre.

Costes de Guinée avec les Royaumes qui y sont connus des Europeens, au dedans des terres; Selon les Relations les plus nouvelles.

Paris, 1671. Old colour. 340 x 530mm.

£480

Du Val's scarce map of the coasts of Africa from Sierra Leone south to the Equator. Of interest is the early depiction of the mass of slaves forts that had sprung up on the Gold Coast (modern Ghana), including the infamous Elmina, Christiansborg and Cape Coast Castle (here Cabo-Corso). A key marks which were English, Dutch, Danish or Portuguese. Issued in Du Val's atlas 'Cartes de Geographie'.
